SOC SOURCE

WELCOME BACK!

NEW SAB MEMBERS

LIA

Hi everyone! My name's Lia (she/they) and I'm a senior Sociology major from Maryland. My sociological interests are broad but generally revolve around resource distribution across cities, decolonial theory, and social research for community organizing. I'm really excited to be on the SAB this year and get to know more people in the department!

GRACE

Hi- I am Grace and I am a senior Sociology and Education double major. I am interested in the intersection of these two disciplines, and love using my sociology background in my education classes. In my extra time, I work at a local K-8 school running after-school programs. This year I hope to get to know everyone in the department better and work on recreating our little community.

CHENEY

Hi everyone! I am Cheney (she/her), and I am a junior Sociology major and Math minor from Nebraska. I intend to pursue a Master's in Public Health and a career in biostatistics and/or epidemiology. Over the summer I completed community-based research with local courts! Stop by and say hi at any of our events. I'm excited to get to know all of the Sociology majors (and potential majors)!

ICE CREAM SOCIAL

Come join SAB and the sociology department for a welcome back ice cream social!

When: Sept 16 (3rd Thurs) @1pm

NEW PODCAST

PEOPLE PLACE
POWER

The graphic features the podcast title 'PEOPLE PLACE POWER' in white, bold, sans-serif font on a dark red background. To the right, a circular inset shows a white line-art illustration of a hand holding a megaphone, with a profile of a person's head nearby. The background of the entire section includes a topographic map and a street grid.

BENJAMIN SWIFT '22 AND TRISHA MUKHERJEE (COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY '21) HAVE BEEN WORKING ON A NEW PODCAST PROJECT CALLED PEOPLE • PLACE • POWER FOR THE PAST YEAR WITH FUNDING FROM CREATIVITY AND INNOVATION AT COLORADO COLLEGE. NIK BLUEBIRD LANE (CC SOC '21) IS CREATING THE EPISODE ARTWORK.

The independent podcast explores big questions around global activism through the eyes of activists creating change in underreported and unprecedented ways. Through the show, we aim to push back against the idea that it is white western "saviors" who need to bring human rights to other groups; instead, we aim to amplify the voices of those shaping their own communities. We'll be releasing our first episode on Monday, September 6th.
