

GENERAL RELEASE AND WAIVER

There are many opportunities for on-campus and off-campus study and activities at Colorado College in which students are encouraged to participate. Colorado College makes every effort to assure that due care and prudence are exercised in these programs. However, the college cannot assume liability beyond its standard liability insurance coverage. Accordingly, we request that each student, and if the student is under 18 years of age, his/her parent or guardian sign this General Release and Waiver. This General Release and Waiver applies to most on-campus and off-campus study and activities sponsored by Colorado College, and is effective during the student's stay or enrollment at Colorado College. This General Release and Waiver does not apply to off-campus study abroad programs.

I, a student in consideration of participation in on-campus and/or off-campus study and activities sponsored by Colorado College, to the extent permitted by applicable law, do, for myself, my heirs, and my personal representatives, hereby forever exempt and release Colorado College, its trustees, officers, faculty, staff, agents, and employees from any and all liability, claims, demands, or causes of action whatsoever arising out of any damage, loss, or injury to me or my property while engaged in such on-campus or off-campus study or activities, including but not limited to transportation, housing, and field trips, whether such loss, damage, or injury results from the negligence of Colorado College, its trustees, officers, faculty, staff, agents, or employees or from some other cause. I hereby forever exempt and release Colorado College from any and all liability for any act or omission of any kind or character whatsoever and release the college from any costs, damages, and claims of any kind with respect to which I or my heirs, successors, or assigns may claim against the college and agree as follows:

1. That I assume all risks in engaging in and carrying out on-campus or off-campus study which may include but not be limited to field trips, classes, projects, and academic class-related activities, including transportation and housing, and I release the Colorado College, its trustees, officers, faculty, staff, agents or employees from any liability for injury to myself or any damage to or loss of my possessions, regardless of the cause of such injury or loss.
2. Trip leaders, program directors, and instructors assume no responsibility for the personal conduct of group members. In the area of personal behavior, students are required to make personal decisions for which the Colorado College does not assume responsibility or liability.
