

10th Reunion

Class Gift Project Options

Suggested Goals

Class Gift Project Suggested Goal: $5,000

Overall Participation Suggested Goal: 12%

Percent of classmates that make a gift this year to any fund

Overall/Total Giving Suggested Goal: $14,000

This number is based on the existing Annual Fund Support gifts, gifts already made within this calendar year, and the amount that could be raised through the Class Gift Project. This amount does not include any major gifts that have not been confirmed.

Reunion Giving Designations & Details

Select a Class Gift Project designation/cause on campus that your class would want to raise funds to help support and can get behind.

1. Current Use Named Scholarship

An annual fund scholarship is named for your reunion. Any/all funds the reunion class can raise within the calendar year will be distributed in the next academic year.

2. Your Already Established Endowed Scholarships

Classes or donors have already established an endowed scholarship fund. A reunion class can choose to designate one of these funds as their Class Gift Project. Any funds raised during the calendar year would be added to that fund.

Class of 2012/2013 Fund: Wellness Center and Suicide Prevention

3. Unrestricted Funds

Annual Fund

Provides unrestricted support for institutional priority projects

Annual Fund for Financial Aid

Provides unrestricted support for Financial Aid

General Fund for Athletics

Provides unrestricted support for Athletics

Colorado College Mental Health Promotion Fund

Supports mental health promotion and suicide prevention efforts on campus, part of CC's commitment to providing comprehensive and holistic care for our community.

Antiracism at Colorado College Fund

Drives forward CC's Antiracism Implementation Plan, enabling the college to take concrete steps while making antiracism central to our academic and co-curricular programs.

4. Existing Named Endowed Scholarships

The Colorado Pledge Endowed Scholarship (existing scholarship fund)

The Colorado Pledge is an initiative to ensure that Colorado College is as affordable for students from Colorado as our state's flagship public institution; the University of Colorado, Boulder. This program is a pilot aimed at supporting Colorado families. Gifts to this endowed scholarship will help to increase the annual spendable income from this fund to further support this initiative.